

WATERFORD COUNTY ELECTION.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 22 February 1867 *in*for,

COPY "of the VERDICT of the CORONER'S INQUEST on Mr. Keily, killed in Dungarvan at the last WATERFORD ELECTION."

COPY of the VERDICT of the CORONER'S INQUEST on Bartholomew Keily, killed in Dungarvan at the last WATERFORD ELECTION.

THAT the deceased, Bartholomew Keily, was feloniously, wilfully, and with malice aforethought, murdered at his own door, by a stab of a lance, by one of 16 of the 12th Lancers, who unlawfully charged down the quay on the 29th December 1866, five of whom are named, Sergeant Major Woolly, Browne, Shannon, Aitcheson, and Hammerton.

(signed) Henry Thos. Deneely, Coroner, County Waterford.

WATERFORD COUNTY ELECTION.

COPY of the VERDICT of the CORONER'S INQUEST on Mr. Keily, killed in Dungarvan at the last WATERFORD ELECTION.

(Sir Henry Winston Barron.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 28 March 1867.
